

Flames of Faith Ascending Prayers

What is this marriage of promise to faith?
This bond of anchored hope endured?
The promise and the faith entwined?
What perfect union of accord.
What birth comes forth in power!
One God of Promise Eternal Lord
With man of faith and love enjoined.
Fulfillment waits and will endure
Without us it will not attain
Till we in Him are one and same.

November 12, 2013 – Revelation 15:3-4

And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the Song of the Lamb, saying, Great and Marvellous are Thy Works, Lord God Almighty;

Just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of saints.

Who shall not fear Thee, O' Lord, and Glorify Thy Name?

For Thou Only are Holy:

For all the Nations shall come and Worship before Thee;

For Thy Judgments are made Manifest.

The Gardener’s

Heir

J.E. Wells

Genesis 2:8

And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there He put the man that He had formed.

I Kings 21:1-3

And it came to pass after these things, that Na'-both the Jez'-re-el-ite had a vineyard, which was in Jez'-re-el, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. And Ahab spake unto Na'-both, saying, "Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or if it seems good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money."

And Na'-both said to Ahab, "The Lord forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee."

Matthew 13:27-30

So the servants of the householder came and said to him, "Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? From whence then hath it tares?"

He said unto them, "An enemy hath done this."

The servants said unto him, "Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?"

But he said, "Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, you root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn."

Isaiah 27:1-6

In that day the Lord with His sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and He shall slay the dragon that is in the sea. In that day sing ye unto her,
"A vineyard of red wine."

I the Lord do keep it; I will water it every moment; lest any hurt it,
I will keep it night and day.

Fury is not in Me: who would set the briers and thorns against Me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. Or let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me.

He shall cause them that come to Jacob to take root;
Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the earth with fruit.

Preface

I wonder how many times I have read Genesis. It always seems a good place to start. This is somewhat of a joke since the word Genesis by definition means beginning. But the truth is, for us, it is the beginning as we know it. I say it this way because God existed before we did so therefore there is more to the meaning of beginning than we know. Okay, I am laughing too. So, with that said, I will go forward from the beginning.

Genesis 2:8 states that the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there He put the man that He had formed. I can't tell you how long I have looked at these words. A long time though. It is an amazing fact and it is amazing in that it is amazing in its simplicity! The Lord God planted a garden. It was the next logical step. I mean, He created light. He created the firmament. He divided the waters above from the waters beneath and then He made the sun for warmth and light and the moon and stars for night. He divided light from dark, night from day, and earth from sky. He created everything needful for a perfect garden.

I see that the Lord God likes to make things. He created everything purposefully and perfectly. He does not do anything randomly or haphazardly. Everything is perfectly created, perfectly timed, and intended for perfection. At this point I would say to you, go back and read Genesis Chapter One. Pay special attention to the way the Lord God divided everything He made. Even the divisions are divided perfectly and with perfect intent. It is perfectly important to understand the dividing or the separating of two opposing forces. You will see this more clearly as we go forward if you will look at it first from the beginning.

You see, this is where it all started. This unceasing desire that we possess to be undivided, to be one and united, and to be made perfect as He is perfect has its birth in Genesis. It is also our Father's kind intent to finish that which He has started in us. He will do it by His word. For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of joint and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart (Hebrews 4:12).

My brothers and sisters in the Lord...fear not! God saw that it was good.

This, for all intense purposes is an experiment. The making of it came to me while in prayer and so I have started putting it together. If you have enjoyed this and would like to receive more of what the Lord lays on my heart please let me know. I am going to continue writing as long as He tells me to and I know it is not for me alone. Send me an email and let me know:
